

News Flash - September 2015

The displayed news clipping appeared in Times of India Chennai Edition on 15-Sep-2015.

An app to access land records

The revenue department on Monday announced 'AMMA e-Service of Land records (Access and Manage through Mobile from Anywhere e-Service of Land Records)', an online service to facilitate access of land records available with the government. The mobile app will help users to see classification of lands and patta details after entering the survey number, said revenue minister R B Udhyakumar.